

A BACKDOWN IN THE ROAD BOND AFFAIR

Magistrates Report That Fiscal Court Cannot Order a Vote.

Leaves the Question Where it Was Before—Petition to Be Started Shortly.

FISCAL COURT ENDED TODAY

County Road Supervisor Bert Johnston is a badly disappointed man today. He for months past had a plan for improving the county roads by issuing $100,000 in bonds and graveling them, doing away with a great deal of the repairs, and yesterday fiscal court ordered a vote taken on the proposition by the people next November. A committee was appointed to draft the necessary resolutions, etc., and today this committee surprised the court by rendering a report that no vote can legally be taken on the proposition now, as certain formalities have not been gone through with.

Supervisor Johnston had already sent word to the county that he was coming out to make stump speeches in favor of the proposition, and a complete back down by the court was more than he expected.

County Attorney Eugene Graves, who was a member of the committee, stated that they found upon examining the statutes that before the people of a county can vote on such questions at least 5 per cent of the voters in the last election must first petition county court. As no petition had been filed, and none could be filed with fiscal court, the election was declared off, so far as fiscal court is concerned.

Some of the members, backed up by County Judge Lightfoot, it is understood claim that the county could not issue the bonds if they were voted, taking the position that the county is now carrying as great a bonded indebtedness as possible under the law. County Attorney Graves does not agree with this, however, and thinks if the preliminaries are carried out the people may yet take a vote on the question in November.

It is likely that Supervisor Johnston will at once begin getting signatures to such a petition and present it to county court, and it will then become the duty of county court to call the election, and the vote may be taken in November after all.

"I have yet found only one private citizen opposed to the plan for improving the roads," said a magistrate this morning, "but I think some of the magistrates are. In fact I think some of them were glad the report came in. So far as I am concerned, I don't know what we are going to do if some half is not called on the enormous expenditures for county roads in McCracken every year. Most of our roads are dirt roads, and they are in such condition in the spring that the county simply has to do something to them, and it costs us a lot of money. We found at the present session that the roads cost the county $23,000 during the past season. This is what the supervisor reported, and when the receiver reported, we found that the roads had cost $27,000 instead of $23,000. It developed on investigation that the apparent discrepancy was due to the fact that the county judge has authority to order repairs to be made in case of emergency, and the additional amount was paid out by his orders for repairs made during the absence to various parts of the county of the supervisor. The amount, however, was spent, and there is now very little to show for it, and thousands of dollars will have to be turned loose the same way this year. Our idea is to do away with dirt roads and gravel them all, and in this way repairs would not be necessary every year as they are now. Something will have to be done."

Yesterday's reports stated that $119,567 was spent on the roads in 1901. It should have been $119,567. The court voted unanimously today to authorize the county judge to bor-

RUSSIA'S DEFEAT ON THE YALU RIVER IS REPORTED TODAY

Loss Said to be Heavy But no Confirmation Received.

Japan to Make a Supreme Effort Sunday to Invest Port Arthur.

EXPECTED TO AT LEAST BOTTLE THE HARBOR

Paris, April 8—A report has reached here that fresh defeat has been sustained by the Russians in the vicinity of the Yalu river. The loss is said to be heavy. There is no confirmation of the report.

Japan and Russia are aligned along the Yalu river, and a decisive battle is expected, but has not really occurred as reported.

Japanese troops are entering the estuary of the Yalu without hindrance, while the Russians are in force at Antung, on the opposite bank. A special dispatch from Peking-Yang describes their gradual advance.

The fact that Japan can so easily land supplies on the river is taken to indicate that she has no fear of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, which is kept in check by the Japanese squadron, which was seen cruising off the port since Wednesday.

TO MAKE SUPREME EFFORT.

St. Petersburg, April 8—Information has been received from Port Arthur which asserts that the Japanese have planned a supreme attempt for the investment of Port Arthur Sunday, which is orthodox Greek Easter. Twenty-five fire ships are prepared for sinking in the channel while the whole Japanese fleet in the vicinity will bombard the forts.

The Japanese are convinced that they will succeed through sheer numbers.

Some of the fire ships they believe are sure to reach critical spots and if nothing else is secured the harbor at least will be completely "bottled."

WAR ON DOGS

Warrants Will be Issued Monday Morning.

Judge Sanders Says State Law Must Be Enforced in Paducah.

Judge Sanders today announced at police court that war would begin in earnest on dogs next Monday morning.

The city in addition to its regular police, will have out extra men in various districts to report all who have not paid their dog tax, and those who fail will be warrantable Monday, or as soon thereafter as reports can be made in their cases.

Judge Sanders stated that the local officers did not make the law, but are duty bound to enforce it. It is a state law embodied in the second class charter, and the city cannot elp it, he declared. The present license is $3.30 on male and $5.50 on female dogs. Some people have enough dogs to break them up. They must pay the tax, however, or get rid of the canines.

"There is one woman," said the court, "who has 13 dogs, on which she pays a tax regularly. I am informed they cost her about $300 a year."

Chief Collins expects to begin taking up dogs again Monday. It has now been about two weeks since any of the animals were impounded, and the city will wage another crusade, this time against both dogs and their owners.

Both the above cases were disposed of within half an hour after the indictments were returned.

Other indictments returned were against Harry Thacker, white, who is charged with throwing down Frank Jones, the hardware merchant, and robbing him of his diamond shirt stud. George Barnett, colored, who shot at Officer Cross several days ago, was indicted for malicious shooting without wounding.

This afternoon the robbery case against Jimmie Taylor, son of Councilman Young Taylor, went to trial. Taylor is alleged to have assisted John Mann in robbing Jim Rogers of his watch on lower Kentucky avenue several months ago. Mann got a term in the penitentiary during the special term of circuit court last week, and Taylor's motion for a separate trial was sustained and his case continued over until today.

The case against Henry Kahn for maintaining a nuisance in the way of a pool room, was set for the 9th day. Dave Desberger, who was charged as a defendant in the same case, was fined $100 by agreement.

AN ALLEGED FORGER IS CAUGHT HERE

Youth Comes Down on the Charleston and Forges Clerks Name

Gets No Money and Lands in the Lockup—Gus Williams Shot By Officer Wm. Rogers.

SPOILED CANNED GOODS SOLD

Black Little is the name given a young man who was arrested this morning by Officers Cross and Harley for forgery. He arrived last night on the steamer Charleston, and is said to be from Highland, a landing up on the Tennessee river.

The prisoner appears to be about 25 years old, and soon after reaching the city is alleged to have attempted to pass a forged check at Marcoffski's saloon on South Second street. He failed and went to Lee Aultman's, where he was again unsuccessful, the police being notified after he left.

The check was recovered. It is made payable to W. J. Candor, and purports to have been signed by Joe Odle, who is clerk on the Charleston. W. J. Candor is not known here.

The check is on the First National Bank, and is for $50.75. The writing is bad and the check would likely never have been passed by [the young swindler].

The warrant against the youth was sworn out by the clerk on the boat. It is said Little, or whatever his name is, comes from the town up the Tennessee river mentioned above, and he will probably send home for help. His trial is set for tomorrow in Police Court.

SHOT BY POLICEMAN.

Gus Williams, a brother to Zeno Williams, the negro killed while burglarizing Eugene Edwards' saloon at Twelfth and Trimble streets some time ago by Mr. Edwards was, shot at three times and struck once, by Officer William Rogers near Ninth and Harrison streets last night. It seems Williams, who is a youth, has been working for Barry and Henneberger. They have been missing oats, and yesterday found a bag of the grain apparently hidden in their loft. Officer Rogers was left to watch for the thief and early in the evening Williams and his father came around with a wagon and young Williams went into the loft for the oats. He was called to halt as he came down, but instead he ran, and was shot at. About 10 o'clock he was found at his home on Terrell street, shot in the shoulder, and taken to the lockup. Today he was removed to the city hospital and is not seriously hurt. A warrant will also probably be issued against the father.

CARVED WITH RAZOR.

Will Bunyon works at the N. C. & St. L. and lives on South Tenth near Caldwell streets. He had words with Nellie Brown, he claims, last night and she pulled a razor and began cutting him. He was cut in the forehead, cheek and behind the left ear, and the woman escaped. His injuries are not serious.

Harry Waller, alias "Dog," is wanted by the police for cutting Frank Jones, an employee of one of the brick yards last night near Seventh and Jones streets. It seems Jones was with some woman and Waller took offense, and threw at Jones, who then knocked him down a few times. Waller as he fell every time, is alleged to have cut Jones, but the wounds are all slight.

A MANUFACTURER EXEMPT FROM TAX

No License Required of Them in Paducah.

Judge Sanders So Decided in a License Case Tried This Morning.

CASES IN THE POLICE COURT

Judge Sanders today in the police court decided that manufacturers do not have to pay a license in Paducah. There is a state law which exempts manufacturers from taxation for a period of five years as an inducement to their location, but this is construed to mean probably only on real estate and personal property.

The city of Paducah, however, in its license ordinance has failed to require a license of manufacturers, and when the case against Riglesberger & Co. today for failing to pay a license came up, Judge Sanders decided that the firm was not liable for a license, as the evidence showed that the company only manufactured lumber.

It was held that where a firm buys lumber and sells it, as some of them do who have no mills, they are liable for the license. Where they buy the lumber and resell it, they are liable. The evidence showed that Riglesberger manufactured it from the raw material and the case was dismissed.

Cases against H. A. Rose, Rudy and Phillips and J. E. English, for failing to pay license, were continued until Monday.

Johnnie Fisher, a small negro boy who stole a bicycle, was given 30 days in the lockup.

The case against John Lowe, colored, for failing to have lights on his back, was dismissed, it being shown that the lights had been repeatedly blown out by the wind, and there was no intention to violate the law.

A breach of the peace case against Tom Jones was dismissed.

THE ALDERMEN MET LAST EVENING

Several Ordinances Were Passed by Board.

Mayor Given Further Time in City
Scale Matter—Board of Public Works in Evidence.

THE COUNCIL ACTION RATIFIED

The board of aldermen met in regular session last night with Alderman Gus Singleton absent.

The contract made by the city with the Gamewell electric company for a $1,600 storage battery, was ratified.

Mayor Yeiser reported to the board that William Lyon, formerly city engineer here, instituted suit against the city for a balance of $30 for an assessor's map made years ago. Solicitor Puryear was notified of the action and the matter was referred to him.

An ordinance for a gate and watchman at Eleventh and Norton streets, at the intersection of the N. C. & St. L. road and the Paducah City Railway company tracks, ordered drafted. The other ordinance locates the gate at Twelfth and Norton streets.

Mayor Yeiser reports that information given him showed something wrong at the city scales, as wagons had not been weighed properly for some time. Councilman Jackson stated that there was a defect in the mechanism of the scales, and the mayor allowed further time for investigation.

A quietus was given Mr. Saunders A. Fowler, formerly wharfmaster and Attorney Mark Worten, formerly city solicitor.

Dr. Garber, the newly elected meat and milk inspector offered a bond which was accepted, and as there was some question as to his eligibility to the office, City Solicitor Puryear was ordered to fill out a list of questions to be asked by Clerk Henry Bailey to Dr. Garber when the latter goes to qualify. These will have to be sworn to.

Mayor Yeiser made several other reports, among them being relative to the progress in the work of remodeling the Tenth and Clay street fire station, and also notifying the board that the Roberts suit against the city would come up at this next term of federal court.

The treasurer's report showing a balance on hand amounting to $20,605.47 was received and filed and all accounts against the city allowed.

An ordinance compelling property owners to keep their side walks in good repair, and imposing a fine of $10 on them for failure to comply with the ordinance was given first reading.

An ordinance prohibiting residents dumping trash in the alleys, street or gutters, and imposing a fine of $10 for violation of the ordinance was given first passage.

The matter of putting in a plank sidewalk from Adams to Jackson street on Twenty-first street was referred and also was the request for an improved alley behind the Paducah Packing Co., plant on the south side.

The reports of Fire Chief Woods, City Weigher Hesselton, Milk and Meat Inspector Duley and Sewer Inspector Rasor, were filed.

The following liquor licenses were granted to be transferred: Isenman Bros., 231 South Second street; A. W. Berry, North Eighth street, to P. B. Finley; Storrie and Elrod, south Second to John Elrod; L. C. Perry, South Fifth street, to Brazzolaro and Hirschfeld.

W. E. Ham was refunded the money he deposited for a license, his application being refused.

The committee appointed to confer with doctors relative to a suitable location for the new city hospital, reported that a conference with the committee from the medical society had been held [but nothing done, and the committee requested the power to act which was given it. The committee will confer with the doctors again and after selecting the site, will call for plans and get the actual work started as soon as possible.

Mr. Ed. Noble, a member of the board of public works, addressed the board on the payment of Contractor Terrall for the street improvements extending in front of the post office. There is a law which prohibits municipalities from charging the government for such improvements, and the board of public works was at a loss to

NEW WHARFBOAT

BIG ONE FROM ST. LOUIS ARRIVES FOR REPAIRS.

The big wharfboat purchased at St. Louis recently by the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company, has been brought here and will shortly be pulled out on the ways for repairs. The boat will be used here for wharf purposes by the Tennessee river packers plying between St. Louis and Tennessee river. It is understood one of the Fowler wharfboats will be sold, if possible, and the St. Louis boat substituted to be used jointly as a public wharf and as a wharf for the St. Louis company packets. It is stated that if the above plan is not consummated, the boat will be moored in the rear of the grain mill, the property being owned by Captain James Koger, superintendent of the St. Louis Packet company.

A BAD SEASON FOR SHOW PEOPLE

Many Idle Actors and Actresses in New York.

The Season Was Promising But Has
Been the Worst in Ten Years.

AND MANY SHOWS "BUSTED"

New York, April 7.—If you want to know how people bear up cheerfully under hard luck, the "Rialto" is a good place to visit just now.

There was a time when the "Rialto" was confined mostly to Fourteenth street, but nowadays it is extended to Twenty-third street, or above, and takes in that part of Broadway from Fourteenth street nearly to Forty-second street.

Who first gave this name to the section of the city most frequented by actors and actresses nobody knows, but today from Maine to California, and from Minneapolis to Jacksonville, everybody in the United States knows its significance.

The theatrical season now drawing to a close, which promised to be one of the most prosperous in the history of the American stage, has actually proved to be one of the most disastrous.

A potent reason for this was furnished by the excessive commercial and speculative expansion which marked the beginning of last year. The managers everywhere, especially in New York, were moved by the boom times of a year ago to put on more companies and larger ones than they ever had before. New theaters, some of them most expensive and gorgeous, sprang up "like mushrooms" in this town.

But the shadow of impending hard times was visible even before the opening of the season, and more than one manager would have been very glad to retrace his expansive steps had it been possible to do so.

It was not however, until the great Iroquois Theater fire in Chicago that the bottom fell clear out. Until then the playhouses had been doing fair business, and some few of them opened their doors nightly to "capacity." That disaster however, killed the business almost completely for all except the best attractions and many managers who expected to do well enough in the Christmas season to make up for the bad business before and after were fairly aghast at the meager audiences in their houses.

There was some hope that reaction would set it, but the hope was not realized, and April finds the theater business everywhere at a lower ebb than it has been at this season for many years. More unemployed actors and actresses of all but the very highest grade are wandering up and down the Rialto than have been seen there for at least ten years. It is possible that there were as many stage managers out of a job then as now, but there certainly has been no time since then when the situation paralleled the present one.

While it is a little early, it is not expected by far-seeing managers that the coming season will be much better, if as good. The business has this season been best, as a rule, in the cities, but 1904 being a Presidential year companies learned enough to know that there is comparatively not much doing in the cities until after the election, and they will accordingly take to the provinces at the beginning of the season, and try to steer clear of the cities until after the holidays. In this way the smaller cities will during the coming fall get many good attractions, and get them early. The indications are that not as many companies by several hundred will go out this coming season as the one now coming to an end.

"THE HERMIT" DEAD

CHARACTER WELL KNOWN TO RIVER MEN EXPIRES.

The Pittsburg Leader says: "The Hermit is dead," was the news passed along the water front here this morning and it was received with sorrow by every river man who heard it. 'The Hermit' of the Ohio river was Samuel Burnell, who for 35 years past has been the keeper of the government beacon lights on the Ohio, opposite Brown's Island, near Steubenville. 'The Hermit' was known to every towboat and packet man who has traveled along the Ohio, for many years, and was also known to many people who were passengers on the various boats. He was a man who could be depended on, and, rain or shine, cold, sleet or snow, his two lights were always kept burning. The points where the lights kept by 'The Hermit' are located are very important ones to the pilots and are away from all human habitation, with the exception of the 'Hermitage,' as the lonely cabin where Burnell lived is known. Nothing is known of the antecedents of 'The Hermit.' Where he came from or who his relatives are, where his family life he led, are all sealed books. He never made a confidant of anyone."

THE WEATHER.

Rain and much colder tonight. Fair in extreme western portion. Saturday fair and much colder.

A BAD PLAN.

The Board of Public Works has already given evidence of its enterprise and sound judgment—in some ways. It has ordered the street roller in use again, and will ask the city to pass a stock law preventing stock from running at large. In regard to the uniform material for street and sidewalk improvements, however, few people will agree with the worthy members of the Board. The idea is all right so far as it applies to people and property in the business or fashionable residence portions of the city, where the property owners are able to pay the cost, but when it comes to the outskirts, or to those portions of town occupied by the people whose property is worth comparatively little, the uniformity rule requiring them to build costly streets and sidewalks would not apply. Down town, and on streets on which finer residences abound, the city should require the best improvements, brick or asphalt streets and concrete curbing and sidewalks. This is the proper kind of material for these kind of localities, but it is not for others, and the Board of Public Works should not attempt to make it so. The cost would prohibit many localities from ever getting these kind of improvements, which is something not contemplated by the men who made our laws, and expect every citizen to get what benefit he is entitled to. Another thing that should have some effect in finally settling the matter is the fact that other cities do not attempt such a foolish, impractical and unjust plan as uniformity of improvements for localities where the property is so diverse in character and value. In any city may be found any kind of improvement from dirt roads, no curbing, and plank walks, to the finest granite thoroughfares and stone pavements. In all other Kentucky cities the custom of adapting the improvements to the locality prevails, and there is no reason it cannot and should not prevail in Paducah. We want the best improvements possible for every locality, but no more. If people in many parts of the city where improvements are needed had to put in the best class of work, there would never be any improvements there, which would be a calamity to the city as well as to the people. The boards should refuse to pass an ordinance requiring all streets and side walks to be alike.

DEMOCRATIC DISCORD.

The only question now is how badly the Republicans will beat the Democrats at the Presidential election in November. It seems to be evident to even the most partisan Democrats that their party is doomed to one of its worst defeats. It is now only a question of figures—of how much the Democrats will be beaten.

It is even now conceded by many Democratic papers that Cleveland's public indorsement of Judge Parker is a firebrand, and destroys Parker's chances, if he ever had any, of uniting the party. A bolt of the Bryan and Hearst crowds, should the sound money or conservative element of the party be victorious at St. Louis, is one of the things now predicted.

The last issue of Bryan's Commoner, which went to press before Cleveland's Parker statement was published, classes as impossible candidates Parker, Cleveland, Hill, Olney and Gorman. He is opposed to Judge Parker principally because Parker is indorsed by David B. Hill. Had Bryan known at the time that Cleveland was also for him, there is no telling to what extent he would have carried his rabid denunciation of the new York Judge, whose administration he declares, "would be worse than the second term of Cleveland."

All this simply shows the attitude of the Bryan faction, which is practically pledged to oppose any and all candidates except Hearst, and virtually leaves the fight in the next Democratic convention a battle royal between the "re-organizers" and the Populistic factions—the free silver and sound-money elements.

It remains clear that the breach widens. Bryan and Hearst cannot support the Cleveland-Parker men, and the latter cannot support the Bryan and Hearst crowd. About the only sensible thing left for the Democrats to do is to make President Roosevelt's election unanimous.

The effort of the administration in Paducah to protect some of its members is too apparent to deceive any one. Mayor Yeiser has had several weeks in which to find out what is the matter with the city scales. He was granted "further time" last night. This sort of business is disgusting to the intelligent citizen. He should either have reported that there was no foundation for the allegations, or else preferred charges as he is required by law and expected to do. The excuse that the city scales were out of order will not suffice. The difference between the present service and the service before the newly elected weigher took charge is too marked to be attributable only to a derangement of the mechanism of the scales, according to the patrons of the scales. It begins to look as if nothing has been done in the scale affair because the administration doesn't intend to do anything. About the only requirement of a public official in Paducah nowadays is that he be able to draw his salary.

William Jennings Bryan, the "Boy Orator of the Platt," has troubles to burn. He lost his $50,000 will contest; his home town, Lincoln, Neb., and the home of the Bryan platform, Kansas City, both went Republican Wednesday; and Grover Cleveland's indorsement of Judge Parker came after the Commoner had gone to press.

The Democratic Memphis Commercial-Appeal says: "Think of Kentucky declining to appropriate $6,000 to repair the dismantled statue of Henry Clay and appropriating $20,000 to build a second monument to Bill Goebel." But we people of Kentucky have too many things of that kind already to think of. Why rub it in?

The Good Roads Convention at New Orleans makes a wise suggestion. It advocates a vagrancy law which will require all able-bodied convicts, tramps and paupers to assist in building good roads. This will not only partially solve the good roads question, but the tramp problem as well.

The familiar donkey with which the cartoonist appropriately represents the Democratic party, is also a pretty good likeness of a few of the Democratic leaders.

MAN WHO DESIGNED CONFEDERATE FLAG

The distinction of having designed the Confederate flag belongs to a Louisville man, whose services to the Lost Cause was so far forgotten that an article to the effect that mystery surrounded the identity of the designer of the flag has been going the rounds of the press.

The Lost Cause, a Louisville periodical published and supported by ex-Confederate, places the credit where it belongs, naming Nicola Marshall, a Louisville painter, as the designer of the flag, and gives his history.

Mr. Marshall is a German-Prussian by birth, but came to this country in 1849 and located at Marion, Ala. The skill of the youthful portrait painter brought him into notice among the most prominent people of the state, and when the Confederacy was forming he was requested by Mrs. Napoleon Lookett, mother of Colonel Lookett, to design a flag. She told him to make one that retained the colors of the Union flag, but which would be easily distinguished, even at a distance. Mr. Marshall thereupon made several designs, one of which was accepted as the emblem of the Confederacy. It consisted of two bars of red, separated by a bar of white and having a square of blue in the upper left corner, containing one star for each of the seceding states.

Mr. Marshall has in his possession a letter written by General Forrest recommending him to the good graces of Jefferson Davis. The painter served with distinction in the Confederate army and after the war was induced to move to Kentucky.

He established a studio in the building on the southwest corner of Fourth avenue and Green street and has occupied this studio ever since. On the walls are portraits of Southern generals, also oil paintings of Abraham Lincoln and Napoleon Bonaparte.

Mr. Marshall and his wife take a great deal of interest in the doings of ex-Confederates and have many interesting reminiscences of war times. It was only a short time ago that Mr. Marshall made any public reference to the fact that he was the designer of the flag.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the great est of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over 35 years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." MORE SAND.

THE PRESENT SUPPLY IS NOW QUITE PLENTIFUL.

The sand digger, operated by The Paducah Sand and Gravel Co., will come into port this afternoon with another large load of sand, and the contractors will be well supplied with sand and gravel, and building delays will be a thing of the past as far as a sand or gravel famine is concerned.

Seven fires in the sand digger were burned out, but yesterday morning the fires were patched up and the boilers fired again. Sand was pumped yesterday afternoon and this morning and tomorrow the digger will go out after gravel.

The contractors lost several days by the sand famine, but the matter could not be remedied. The water was too high and after many experiments the digger suction pipes were lengthened and sand obtained.

At the time I began taking your medicine I was very nervous and did not want to see any one—only my own folks.

"The doctors all said that there was not anything else they could do for me, and also said they did not think that I would ever be any better, and if I was better I would never be able to walk again.

"A friend of mine was taking Paine's Celery Compound at the time and I thought I would try it. I took several bottles before I saw much improvement. But so on my nervousness left me. I again enjoyed seeing all who called at the house.

"I kept right on gaining until now I call myself VERY WELL AND HEALTHY.

NEVER CONNECT THEM

MANY NEVER STOP TO THINK.

Thoughtless people don't connect coffee with their ails but sometimes find out the real facts.

"When I was a coffee drinker I used to have profuse nose bleed about every two weeks lasting an hour at a time, also had palpitation of the heart all the time so that I could not sleep on my left side. I was told coffee was the trouble but having used it all my life it was hard for me to give the habit up and so I would start again drinking it but with the same results always—my old ails would come back without fail.

"Often I wished there was something to take the place of coffee which would not affect me and when Postum came on the market nine years ago I got some and prepared it according to directions. This was a little too strong for me but when I tried just half the quantity it suited me perfectly and I have been drinking it ever since.

"Once I visited a friend who invited me to supper and insisted on my drinking coffee, saying it would not hurt me, 'just one cup.' So I thought I would try a little but I had to pay dear for drinking coffee that evening. I was so nervous I could not sleep for hours and toward morning when I dozed off into a restless sleep was awakened by strangling; jumped out of bed and had to expectorate two mouthfuls of blood, which was just like my old nosebleeds coming back.

"I had another experience but since then I have not taken another sip of coffee and have had no such trouble. Since I am using Postum I can sleep on either side without pain, have no more nosebleeds, the heart trouble has entirely left and I am strong, healthy and well.

"My husband who is bookkeeper for the L. and N. railroad was troubled with nervousness so he could not draw a straight line but since he has quit coffee and used Postum his nerves are so steady and his accounts so neat he has got the nickname of 'The L. and N. Ruling Machine.'

"My children will not drink any other beverage and you cannot fool them for they can tell Postum from any imitations." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

MUST PAY NOW

Judge Sanders Says License Must be Paid.

The City Wants the Money—Fines Will Be Assessed Hereafter.

A number of license cases came up today in the police court, but most of them were continued over until tomorrow. Judge Sanders stated that he had decided that a city has a right to regulate its own revenue and taxation, and circuit court had sustained him. That some of the merchants wanted to take the case higher, despite two decisions against them, and if they do they must pay the license first. If the court of appeals should decide that the judgment of the lower courts is erroneous the city will refund all money unlawfully collected.

The license must be paid now, however, or the merchants and others who refuse to pay it will be fined. Judge Sanders stated today that all licenses must be paid without further delay, as the city needs the money. The city is responsible for it should the final decision go against her. Most of the merchants, however, have decided not to carry the case any farther, and have told Judge Sanders they are satisfied.

ECZEMA SETS THE SKIN ON FIRE

No disease causes so much bodily discomfort, or itches, and burns like Eczema. Beginning often with a slight redness of the skin it gradually spreads, followed by pustules or blisters from which a gummy, sticky fluid oozes which dries and scales off or forms hard looking sores and scabs. It appears on different parts of the body but oftenest upon the back, arms, hands, legs and face, and is a veritable torment at times, especially at night or when overheated.

Manager Stockman's Advertising Agency, Station A, Kansas City, Mo.

In 1890 I experienced at times patches on the inside of my hands that itched and burned, causing much discomfort. As time went by it grew worse, and I was convinced that I was afflicted with Eczema. I consulted several physicians and used several external applications, receiving but slight temporary relief. In February I decided to try S. S. S., and in less than a month I experienced a change for the better, and by May all symptoms had disappeared, and I found myself entirely cured, and have had no return of the disease since.

W. F. BRUCE
Manager Stockman's Advertising Agency, Station A, Kansas City, Mo.

The cause of Eczema is a too acid and general unhealthy condition of the blood. The terrifying itching and burning is produced by the overflow through the glands and pores of the skin of the fiery poisons with which the blood-current is overloaded. While external applications, such as washes, soaps, salves and powders aresoot hing and cooling they do not enter into the blood itself or touch the real cause of the disease, but S. S. S. does, and purifies, enriches, and strengthens the thin acid blood and cleanses and builds up the general system, when the skin clears off and Eczema with all its terrifying symptoms disappears.

I. C. TELEGRAPH

Extensive Improvements Will be Made in it.

By Next Year the Road Will Have a Perfect System.

The Illinois Central railroad has decided to make extensive improvements in its telegraph and signal service. G. H. Groce, who was recently appointed superintendent of telegraph for the road, is recognized as one of the most efficient railroad telegraph men in the country, and is making a thorough inspection of the electric signal system in use on the Louisville division of the Illinois Central and will plan a large number of improvements which will be made immediately.

"Within the next year the entire Illinois Central system will be equipped with one of the most complete telegraph and electrical signal systems in the country," said Mr. Groce. "I intend to push the work as rapidly as possible, and a large force of men are already at work renewing the signal system."

PEOPLE TRYING TO START A REVOLUTION IN HAYTI.

Kionston, Jamaica, April 8.—A plot has been discovered here having for its object the starting of a revolution in Hayti to overthrow Gen. Nord Alexis, the president of that republic. It appears that there are two factions engaged, one of which is working for Gen. Firmin and the other for Gen. Fouchard.

The Haytian exiles here are actively engaged in making preparations for sending expeditions to Hayti, notwithstanding that a warning of the conspiracy has been sent to the Haytian government. It is confidently expected that the revolution will materialize shortly.

In marked contrast to the great number of patent medicines, cure-alls and secret preparations is Walther's Peptonized Port.

This preparation claims no magic virtues, has no mysterious composition, and does not presume upon the intelligence of the people by pretending to be a sovereign cure for all the ills to which the flesh is heir.

Walther's Peptonized Port comes as a common sense tonic, composed of two well-known remedies—port wine and pepton, about the efficacy of which there is no question. All druggists sell Walther's Peptonized Port.

LARGE VESSEL.

BIGGEST FREIGHT STEAMER IN THE WORLD TO BE LAUNCHED.

The largest freight vessel in the world will be launched at Lorain, O., tomorrow. In the first place the length of this vessel, 560 feet, is greater than the distance in a square (between two streets) of a city. She contains 4,500 tons, or 9,000,000 pounds of steel, exclusive of machinery and fittings of every sort. More than 750,000 rivets are used in her construction. She will carry between 11,000 tons of ore and 300 tons of fuel, on eighteen feet draught. This is equivalent to 333 car loads, or eleven trainloads. The load is taken aboard through thirty-three hatches, or deck openings, and by means of modern unloading machinery it is expected the immense cargo can be discharged in six hours. The Wolvin will cost complete at least $480,000, and perhaps an even half million. There are seventeen larger vessels in the world than this one, but they are ocean liners and carry passengers as well as freight, so this is the largest vessel used exclusively for freight in the world. The work of building the Wolvin was started December 1, 1903, and twenty days have been lost by floods and bad weather. She is owned by the Acme Steamship Company, of which A. B. Wolvin is president.

HOWARD TO GO FREE

NOTORIOUS PREACHER WINS OUT IN TENNESSEE.

Memphis, Tenn., April 8.—Judge Hammond, in the United States District court, sustained the demurrers in the case of the United States vs. G. F. E. Howard, on trial under the charge of subordination of perjury. This action of the court practically means Howard will go free. It is expected he will be liberated in a week or ten days. The cases set for trial in the Federal court at Jackson probably will be quashed.

Howard's trial has attracted wide spread attention both in this country and England. He recently completed a ten-years' term for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Architects Gather at Frankfort

---Superintendent Elected.

State Capitol Commission Reaches No Definite Conclusions.

Frankfort, Ky., April 8.—Architects who propose to submit plans for the new State Capitol and applicants for the position of Superintendent of Construction are here to appear before the State Commission.

The commissioners are without any plan of procedure in the work before them. A committee may be named to visit several of the State Capitols on a tour of inspection before the plans submitted are adopted. Secretary of State McChesney on a recent trip South, visited the Capitols of Georgia and Florida, and Auditor Hager, who is now in Arkansas, has inspected the building at Little Rock, which is just being completed.

Among the architects who will compete are: Frank P. Milburn, of Columbia, S. C.; E. E. Myers, of Detroit, Mich.; L. M. Weathers, of Memphis, Tenn.; J. R. Geiske, of Corde, W. Va.; Carpenter & Blair, of New York City; George R. Mann, of Little Rock, Ark.; Morgan & Dillon, of Atlanta, Ga.; Stein, Cohen & Roth, of New York; Duhring, Ohio & Zeigler, of Philadelphia; McDonald & Shebley, of Louisville, and J. M. Bramblett, of Gulf Port, Miss.

Five applicants for the place of Superintendent of Construction of the new building filed application with Secretary Ware, of the commission. The place pays $2,000 per year, and the work will begin upon the letting of the contract. The applicants were: F. X. Kearney, of Paris; B. W. Depp, of Eddyville; J. R. Williamson, of Lexington; C. M. Flenor, of Bowling Green, and W. C. Harsen, of Bardwell.

The commission selected C. M. Flexner, of Bowling Green, as Superintendent of Construction Building. The plans discussed by the architects and all but one were against the maintenance of the present executive building as an east wing. Another meeting will be held. It is said that Inspector H. B. Hines favors Frank Milburn as the architect. Milburn built the Florida Capitol over which there was considerable trouble.

TO BUY BANKS

FORMER SECRETARY JOHN G. CARLISLE AT HEAD OF COMPANY.

New York, April 8.—John G. Carlisle, former secretary of the treasury, and former Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, are respectively vice president and president of the United States banking corporation, which has been organized in Maine to buy up banks throughout the United States. The corporation has opened offices at No. 41 Wall street. The capital is $10,000,000. The trust is already said to be in negotiation for control of the Irving National Bank, at Chambers street and Broadway.

The identity of the persons, behind this corporation is concealed, but Mr. Carlisle has been known to act for the Standard oil interests. He refuses to disclose his backers in this enterprise. It is reported that the corporation has already secured control of banks in Philadelphia, Boston, St. Paul and San Francisco. The plan is to make the parent corporation a clearing house for all the concerns which it controls. It will guarantee the stock and securities of its subsidiary banks.

WHAT MICROBES ARE.

Since Pasteur demonstrated the fact that many human diseases are due to minute living things which grow and multiply in our bodies there has been a tendency to call all microscopic organisms, whether harmful or not, "germs" or "microbes" or "bacteria" indiscriminately. This confusion may be cleared by the statement that protozoa are the lowest known forms of animals and that bacteria are the lowest known forms of plants, while "germs" and "microbes" may apply to the disease-causing forms in either group.—April Century.

Washington.—The secretary of the interior has withdrawn from entry, except under the mineral laws, 103,680 acres of public land in the Salt Lake, Utah, land district, and 1,480 acres in the Seattle, Wash., land district both for forestry purposes.

DR. CARLSTEDT'S German Liver Powder

This is the one specific that reaches the greater number of human ills. For, when you have regulated the liver—that time-lock put upon the whole physical structure—you need have little fear of the other organs. You will pardon us, then, if we speak with the utmost frankness of spirit. The unvarnished truth goes farthest and sounds best. Let the body get run down and the mental machinery becomes correspondingly inactive. A vigorous man or woman is mentally strong and resilient. So, after we have consulted with minutest care the inflexible law Nature has written down for us—that is, if we do not go beyond this and put into circulation some drug mixture that affords only a brief and stimulating effect—we have done the world a most beneficial service. Then cut out the below coupon at once and send to us and we will send back to you by return mail an order on the below druggist for one full sized bottle which we will pay him for. It costs you nothing to test our remedy; we take all the chances willingly and with every confidence in its efficiency.

Theatrical Notes.

Mr. Parin Witty, singing with the Bostonians, is a cousin of Mrs. Gus Rogers and is the guest of Mrs. Rogers during the engagement of the show here.

Miss Alma Hays, who is studying music in Chicago, will probably in the near future appear as "Carmen" in a production of Carmen by the Hinshaw school, at which she is now studying. Her many friends and admirers here expect her to make a fine impression.

Fred and Minnie Seward and their company, The Seward Show, open a week's engagement at The Kentucky next Monday night. The Seward's are noted for the clean, snappy performances they give, the plays are all new and there are no waits between acts. Mr. Will Santschi, whose illustrated songs were so well received last summer, is still with the company with several new songs. On Monday night one lady will be admitted free with each 30 cent ticket purchased before 6 p. m.

The Bostonians are accomplishing a grand revival of "Robin Hood." They could hardly have hit upon a happier way of beginning the season that completes their quarter-century as an organization, and it seems to be the general verdict that they have never made known so enduring and deservedly popular a work as the Smith-DeKoven chef d'œuvre. The vitality of that engaging musical idyl is among the fixed facts of the stage world. They are here tonight at The Kentucky.

Your Heart.

If you have fainting spells, breast pang, palpitation, redness of the face, discomfort in sleeping on one side.

The only scientific treatment for this whole train of troubles is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is the prescription of a famous specialist, whose great success in treating obstinate nervous heart disease has made his name pre-eminent in the medical and scientific world.

The medicine will cure you. We know it. We want you to prove it. If first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will give you back your money.

"I have for several years suffered at times with heart trouble. I got so bad I could not sleep half the night, and had to sit up on the side of the bed lots of times to get breath. Three of my brothers have died of heart trouble, and I thought I was going the same way, but about two and a half years ago I got a pamphlet about Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and thought I would try a few bottles. After using them I recovered, and have had better health since then than before for several years. I can heartily recommend them for heart trouble."—REV. JERRY HUNT, Pastor Baptist Church, Hurt, Kans.

The Gentleman From Indiana

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

Copyright, 1899, by Doubleday & McClure Co.
Copyright, 1902, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"They were the two shell men that cheated Hartley Bowdler, and they weren't vindictive. They even seemed to be trying to help me a little, though perhaps they were only stealing my clothes, and maybe they thought for them to do anything unpleasant would be superfluous. I could see that they thought I was done for and that they had been hiding in the car when I was put there. I asked them to try to call the trainmen for me, but they wouldn't listen or else I couldn't make myself understood. That's all. The rest is a blur. I haven't known anything more until those surgeons were here. Please tell me how long ago it happened. I shall not die, I think. There are a good many things I want to know about." He moved restlessly, and the nurse soothed him.

Meredith rose and left the room with a noiseless step. He went out to the stars again and looked to them to check the storm of rage and sorrow that buffeted his bosom. He understood lynching, now the thing was home to him, and his feeling was no inspiration of a fear lest the law miscarry. It was the fact that he had been on the rope. Horner came out presently and whispered a long, broad, profound curse upon the men of the Crossroads, and Meredith's gratitude to him was keen. Barrett went away soon after, and Meredith had a strange, unreasonable desire to kick Barrett, possibly for his sergeant's sake. Warren Smith sat in the ward with the nurse and Gay, and the room was very quiet. It was a long vigil. They were still alive—just that, Smith came out to say. Meredith sent a telegram to Helen which would give Plattville the news that Harkless was found and was not yet gone from them. Horner left for the station to catch a train. There were things for him to do in Carlow. At noon Meredith sent a second telegram to Helen as barren of detail as the first. He was alive; was a little improved. But this telegram did not reach her, for she was on the way to Rouen, and half of the population of Carlow—at least so it seemed to the unhappy conductor of the accommodation—was with her.

They seemed to feel that they could camp in the hospital halls and corridors, and they were an incalculable worry to the authorities. More came on every train, and nearly all brought flowers and jelly and chickens for preparing broth, and they insisted that the two latter delicacies be fed to the patient at once. They were still in ignorance of the truth about the Crossroads and spent the day (it was Sunday) partly in getting in the way of the attendants and partly in planning an assault upon the Rouen jail for the purpose of lynching Slattery in case Harkless' condition did not improve at once. Those who had heard his statement kept close mouths until the story appeared in full in the Rouen papers on Monday morning. But by that time every member of the Crossroads White Caps was lodged in the Rouen jail with Slattery. Horner and a heavily armed posse rode over to the muddy corners on Sunday night, and the sheriff discovered that he might have taken the Skilletts and Johnsons single handed and unarmed. Their nerve was gone. They were shaken and afraid, and, to employ a figure somewhat inappropriate to their sullen, glad surrender, they fell upon his neck in their relief at finding the law touching them. They had no wish to hear "John Brown's Body" again. They wanted to get inside of a strong jail and to throw themselves on the mercy of the court as soon as possible. And those whom Harkless had not recognized made no delay in giving themselves up. They did not wish to remain in Six Crossroads. Bob Skilletts, Force Johnson and one or two others needed the care of a physician badly, and one man was suffering from a severely wrenched back. Horner had a train stopped at a crossing so that his prisoners need not be taken through Plattville, and he brought them all safely to Rouen.

It took nearly a week to persuade the people of Plattville that it was better for them to go home, and it was only the confidence inspired by the manner of the two eminent surgeons (they lay in wait at all hours to interview these gentlemen) that did persuade them to return—this and the promise of two daily bulletins.

As many of them said on their return, Plattville didn't "feel like the same place," and a strange thing had happened—for the first time in five years the Carlow County Herald missed fire altogether. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday passed. Mr. Fishbe only sat staring out of the dingy office windows with Parker in a demented silence. There was no Herald; there was no one to get it out.

In the Rouen hospital John Harkless feebly moved on his bed of pain. His constant delusion was that the universe was a vast, white heated brass bell and he a point at the center of it, listening, listening for years, to the brazen hum it gave off and burning in hot waves of sound.

Finally he came to what he would have considered a lucid interval had it not appeared that Helen Sherwood was whispering to Tom Meredith at the foot of his bed. This he knew to be a fictitious presentation of his fever, for was she not by this time away and away for foreign lands? And also Tom Meredith was a slim young thing and not a middle aged youth with an undeniable stomach and a baldish head who by the preposterous pecuniary of fever assumed a grotesque likeness of his old friend. He waved his hand to the figures, and they vanished like figments of a dream; but, all the same, the vision had been realistic enough. No one could help wishing to stay in a world which contained as charming a picture as that.

But the next night Meredith waited near his bedside, haggard and disheveled. Harkless had been lying in a long stupor. Suddenly he spoke, quite loudly, and the young surgeon, Gay, who leaned over him, remembered the words and the tone all his life.

"Away—and away—across the waters," said John Harkless. "She was here—once—in June."

"What is it, John?" whispered Meredith huskily. "You're feeling easier, aren't you?"

And John smiled a little, as if, for the moment, he saw and knew his old friend again.

That same night a friend of Rodney McCune's sent a telegram from Rouen: "He is dying. His paper is dead. Your name goes before convention in September."

SUFFERED ALL HER LIFE

Miss Emma Melvain Could Find No Relief Until She Took Shoffner's Sure Cure.

Covington, Tenn., March 27, 1901. Mr. M. L. Shoffner, Shoffner-Hayes Med. Co.

To give you a full description how I suffered from indigestion would make a book when written out. Will tell you as near as I can in a few words as possible. I have suffered with indigestion for years, in fact, nearly all my life, but did not know it, until four years past, and my physician told me. He put me on malted milk and a tonic which did me no good, and I lived on the milk nine months without missing a meal. I was almost starved and commenced to get very thin. Then thought it would finally kill me. Up to November 1900, I suffered fearfully, and sometimes I thought every breath would be the last one. I was so weak that I could walk but a few steps without resting, and vomited day and night, was so badly swollen it was painful to move. My limbs and back hurt me so I couldn't rest day or night. I am sure nobody ever suffered more than I did with indigestion. I had heard of your medicine, Shoffner's Sure Cure, but of course had no faith in it like all others, but in November I decided to try it. I commenced to try it on Friday at dinner and by Sunday dinner had taken six doses, and went down to dinner and ate just what I wanted of everything on the table, and it didn't hurt me at all. I have taken four bottles and am stronger and feel better than I have in years. I tell everybody to take your medicine and advertise it all can. You can use what you please of this letter, and I sincerely hope it will help you sell your medicine. I can truthfully say it is fine for indigestion. I hope God may spare you to live and make this medicine always. With best wishes all along through life for you.

TEAMS FORMING

Paducah the Only City With Club Selected.

Many Former K. I. T. Boys in Larger Leagues This Season.

All towns in the K. I. T. league are shaping up their teams but Paducah is the only town having her team already picked and ready for playing.

A number of the towns will use players from last year's team and many old faces will be seen in the teams again this season. Henderson will have several former K. I. T. men and also will Hopkinsville and Cairo, but great anxiety seems to be experienced by Cairo fans on what kind of aggregation the Vincennes management is getting together. The Sidney, O., manager who has been successful in getting together several very fast teams, has been secured as manager for the Vincennes team and is said to have gotten together a fast aggregation.

"Rube" Gardner pitched for Buffalo several days ago in a game against Louisville and did excellent work. Gardner worked for Henderson last season and is considered a find by the New York managers.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says of "King" Brockett who worked in the box for Cairo last season:

"Brockett, who twirled for the visitors, was a member of the K. I. T. league last summer and late in the fall defeated Billy Clymer's barnstorming colonels in a hot game at Knoxville, Tenn. He pitched fine ball yesterday for Buffalo, and is likely to make good in the Eastern league."

John Hoeppel, of Evansville, who played in the Hopkinsville team last season, has gone to Springfield, Ill., to work in the Three I league.

The game between the Regulars and Yanigans which was to have been played this afternoon, was postponed until tomorrow on account of the weather.

Checking Dishonesty. Many wandering gipsies employ a very simple method to check dishonesty on the part of the member of their band of musicians who has to make the collection. They give him a plate to hold in his right hand, and a live fly which he has to keep imprisoned in his left, as he goes round collecting the money.

Miss Maud McCutcheon, of Memphis, is visiting Mrs. James McCann.

HALF DEAD.

That's the way so many people feel in the spring—don't care whether "school keeps" or not—dragging themselves through the day's work, no energy, no ambition for either work or play.

Henry's Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla

Is bottled energy and life. It is full of blood-purifying, health-giving, appetizing, digestion, stimulating properties. It is not a temporary brace; the good in every dose will stay with you for months to come. Every day's delay in buying a bottle is a subtraction from health's bank account.

Redmond Refuses Crown. William Redmond, M. P., loves to tell how he once refused a crown. It was during his youth, when traveling for sport in Africa, he fell into the hands of King Ja Ja, who took such a fancy to him that he offered to make "Willie" Redmond his prime minister and heir apparent.

A New England Sandwich. "How many children have you?" asked the friend of his boyhood. "I have three. The oldest and youngest are girls, and the second child is a boy. My wife calls them the 'sandwich.' "Huh!" said the boyhood friend. "That's the first time I ever heard of a sandwich with the tongue on the outside."
